PROCEEDINGS.

DECEMBER, 1892.

THE twenty-fifth meeting of the Society was held in the lecture-room of the Collegiate Reformed Dutch Church, Forty-eighth St., New York City, beginning Thursday, December 29th.

The President, Dr. Chambers, called the meeting to order at 2.35. The record of the last meeting was read and approved. The President delivered an opening address on the Function of the Prophet.

Voted, that the first fifteen minutes of the evening session be devoted to business, and the next forty-five minutes to brief notes not on the printed programme.

At 4 Dr. Hall read the first paper: "The newly discovered Docetist Gospel according to Peter."

At 4.30 a second paper on the same subject was read by Prof. Thayer. This investigated especially the bearing of the document upon the criticism of our Gospels. The topic was then discussed by Messrs. Muss-Arnolt, Bacon, Moore, Ewell, Beecher, Montgomery, and Cobb. Adjourned to 8 P.M.

Thursday evening. Met at 8. — Prof. Moore, from the Council, recommended the following gentlemen for membership:

Cyrus Adler, Ph.D., Washington, D.C.
Prof. Alfred W. Anthony, Lewiston, Me.
Prof. Duncan B. Macdonald, Hartford, Conn.
Prof. J. Dyneley Prince, Univ. of New York, New York City.
Prof. George T. Purves, Princeton, N.J.
Rev. A. W. Reynolds, Yalesville, Conn.
Prof. Rush Rhees, Newton Centre, Mass.

They were all elected.

At 8.10 Dr. Gustav Gottheil read the first note: "On Some Ancient Jewish Liturgies supposed to contain References to Doctrines of the growing Christian Church." This was discussed by Messrs. Chambers, Huizinga, Moore, and Bacon.

At 8.40 Prof. Hincks read a note on the meaning of Paul's phrase: "Dying with Christ" (Rom. vi. 8). This was discussed by Messrs. Chambers and Toy.

Dr. Huizinga read a note on "αἰτέω, in Mark x. 35, 38." Messrs. Gottheil, Peters, Moore, Toy, Beecher, Hincks, Mitchell, Macdonald, and Muss-Arnolt took part in the discussion.

At 9 Prof. Peters gave a paper on "Ziggurât, High Place and Temple." It was discussed by Messrs. Toy, Paton, Muss-Arnolt, G. Gottheil, R. Gottheil, Ferguson, Ewell, and Huizinga.

Voted to meet to-morrow morning at 9.30, the first half-hour to be reserved for business.

Adjourned.

Wednesday, December 30. Met at 9.50. — No quorum for business being present, Prof. Moore stated the substance of a paper by Dr. B. Pich, "Variants of the Old Testament Text in the Talmud and Midrash." Messrs. Chambers and Muss-Arnolt made some remarks on the subject.

At 10 Prof. Moore read a note on "The Modern Chapters and the Numbering of Verses in the Hebrew Bible."

A quorum being now present, Prof. Arthur L. Frothingham, Jr., of Princeton, on recommendation of the Council, was elected to membership.

On motion of Prof. Toy, it was voted that the editor of the Journal be authorized to expend a sum not exceeding $100 a year for clerical assistance. On motion of Prof. Toy, it was voted that a committee of three be appointed to consider the desirability of paying for contributions to the Journal, and making such other financial arrangements as they may think proper; this committee to report at the next session. The Chair appointed Drs. Ward, Beecher, and Peters as this committee.

In view of the recent decease of Prof. F. J. A. Hort, an honorary member of this body, the Society expressed its sense of the loss which Biblical scholarship has thereby sustained, and requested Prof. Thayer to communicate this expression to the widow of Prof. Hort.

At 10.40 Dr. Muss-Arnolt read a note on "Certain New Testament Passages of Peculiar Difficulty." Upon this Prof. Thayer made some remarks.

At 11.20 Prof. L. B. Paton read a paper on "The Use of the Word Kohen in the Old Testament." It was discussed by Messrs. Moore, Muss-Arnolt, Peters, and Bacon.

At 12.5 Prof. Moore read a portion of his paper on "The Song of Deborah"; on which Messrs. Ewell and Bacon remarked.

The thanks of the Society were voted to the Consistory of the Collegiate Reformed Dutch Church for their kindness in granting to the Society the use of the Chapel of the Forty-eighth St. Church.

The rough minutes were read, and the Society adjourned.

Members in attendance: Messrs. Arnolt, Bacon, Beecher, Brooks, Chambers, Cobb, Dickerman, Ewell, Ferguson, Gardner, G. Gottheil, R. Gottheil, Hall, Harper, Hincks, Huizinga, Macdonald, Martin, E. K. Mitchell, Montgomery, G. F. Moore, Paton, Peters, Sanders, Schmidt, Thayer, E. Thomas, Toy.

JUNE, 1893.

The twenty-sixth meeting of the Society was held in East Divinity Hall, New Haven, beginning Thursday, June 1, at 2.15 P.M. In the absence of both President and Vice-President, Dr. I. H. Hall was chosen to preside. The records of the last meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's report was read and referred to Messrs. Peters and Huizinga as an auditing committee.

On recommendation of the Council, Rev. W. Scott Watson was elected to membership in the Society.

The annual report of the Recording Secretary was read and accepted. Prof. Moore reported verbally from the Publishing Committee.

An invitation was received from the Faculty of the School of the Fine Arts, to attend the twenty-fourth annual reception of the School this evening, from 9 to 11. The invitation was accepted with a vote of thanks.

Messrs. Moore, Peters, and Cobb were appointed a committee to nominate officers for the coming year.

At 2.45 the first paper was read by Dr. A. H. Huizinga. Subject: "The Book of Esther." It was discussed by Messrs. Peters and Hall.

At 3.30, Rev. W. Scott Watson read the second paper, on "A Manuscript of the Samaritan Pentateuch, dated A.D. 1232." Mr. Watson also exhibited the manuscript itself, which attracted great attention, so that the paper gave rise to a running dialogue with the reader as he brought out its contents. Remarks were made by Messrs. Moore, Schaff, Hall, and Peters.

At 4 Dr. I. H. Hall read the third paper, "The Word mepharesho in the Title of the Curetonian Gospels." Remarks were made by Messrs. Thayer and Moore.

At 4.45 Prof. Curtis read the fourth paper, "Notes on Zephaniah." Remarks followed by Messrs. Moore, Thayer, Peters, Hall, and Huizinga.

Adjourned from 5.30 to 8.

Wednesday evening. Met at 8.15. — Dr. Peters reported for the Auditing Committee that the Treasurer's accounts were correct and properly vouched. The Nominating Committee, through Prof. Moore, reported the following list of officers, who were then elected:
